How the exhibitor policy works for exhibitors paying the participation fee -

In return for you paying the insurance participation fee, the Insurers will provide the cover shown in the exhibitions organisers policy Schedule during the Period of Insurance and provided to you in the Evidence of Insurance document. The exhibition organisers remain the policyholder but are allowing the participating exhibitors to take part in their policy. Once the participation fee is paid the Cancellation exhibitor expenses cover commences. The exhibitor property section cover begins once your property items are en route to the venue and ends once the items are back at your business premises/storage location. The Liability section commences during build up and expires at break down of the exhibition.

This policy is between you, Participating Exhibitors and the Insurers as declared in the Schedule. This document, together with its Schedule and any attaching endorsements is the policy which sets out this insurance. It is a legal contract so please read all of it carefully.

Your Policy

Each insured section sets out the scope of the main cover and the circumstances in which the Insurers liability to you is limited or may be excluded. Further, each section sets out other terms and conditions relevant to that section.

Additional clauses set out terms, conditions, exclusions or limitations that may apply to more than one insured section.

The following general terms apply to all sections, clauses and endorsements:

- What is not covered;
- General conditions;
- Complaints Procedure; and

The Insurers will provide insurance as described in this policy and Schedule for the Period of Insurance as long as you pay the premium(s) and other charges to the Insurers or your intermediary and the Insurers or the intermediary accept the premium(s) and other charges within the terms of your invoice. Information You must tell the Insurers

In deciding to accept this insurance and in setting the terms and premium, the Insurers have relied on the information you have given them. You must take reasonable care to provide complete and accurate answers to the questions the Insurers ask when you take out and make changes to your policy.

Careless misrepresentation in the context of a claim

If, on presentation of a claim, the Insurers obtain evidence which suggests that you failed to take care to verify the information you have provided and the Insurers have relied upon in accepting this insurance and setting the terms and premium of this insurance the Insurers may:

- Treat this insurance as if it never existed and refuse to pay all claims and return the premiums paid, if your carelessness causes us to provide you with insurance cover which the Insurers would not otherwise have offered;
- Treat your insurance as if it had been entered into on different terms from those agreed (specifically to reflect the relevant misrepresentation); or
- Reduce proportionately the amount paid on a claim (specifically to reflect the relevant misrepresentation) if the Insurers would have charged more for your insurance.

Careless misrepresentation generally

If the Insurers obtain evidence unrelated to any outstanding claim which suggests that you failed to take care to verify the information provided to them and the Insurers have relied upon in accepting this insurance and setting the terms and premium of this insurance the Insurers may:

- Give you notice in writing that you must pay more for your insurance;
- Give you notice in writing that the terms of your insurance have changed; or
- Cancel this contract of insurance by giving you thirty days' notice in writing and return any premium paid for the balance of the contract term.

If Insurers give you notice that the terms of your insurance have changed or that you must pay more for your insurance then you may give them thirty days' notice in writing that you wish to terminate the contract.

Any return premium due to you will depend on how long this contract of insurance has been in force and whether you have made a claim.

If we establish that you deliberately or recklessly provided them with false information the Insurers may:

- treat this insurance as if it never existed;
- decline all claims; and
- retain the premium (unless it would be unfair to do so).

Change in circumstance

You must tell the Insurers as soon as possible about any changes in the information you have provided to us which happens before or during any Period of Insurance. The Insurers will tell you if such change affects your insurance and if so, whether the change will result in revised terms and/or premium being applied to your policy. If you do not inform the Insurers about a change it may affect any claim you make or could result in your insurance being invalid.
